Exposition of Baptism

Baptism is a rite of ceremonial purification that originates in the Levite administration. In Leviticus 14 regarding the leper, in Numbers 19 regarding one who has touched a dead body, and in many places regarding ritual purifying and sanctifying we have in the Greek Septuagint the mentioning of this word baptism as it appears in our Greek New Testament. In John 3:25 John the Baptist's baptism prompted questions regarding these Levitical purifications. Baptism is a Jewish ritual that originates in the Levite priesthood. Baptism and the pouring of water is a sympathetic symbol or type of the action of the Spirit of Elohim: David says,

“Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean; Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.” (Psa 51:7)

“I will pour out My Spirit on all mankind” (Joel 2:28)

“I will pour out on the house of David and on the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the Spirit of grace and of supplication” (Zech 12:10)

“by the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit” (Tit 3:5-6)

“so that He might sanctify her, having cleansed her by the washing of water with the word,” Eph 5:26

“Such were some of you; but you were washed, but you were sanctified” 1 Cor 6:11

“let us draw near with a sincere heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.” Heb 10:22

We see Baptism is a type of a spiritual reality within the heart of man. Baptism in itself does not wash away your sins or merit you eternal life but it is a symbol and seal of those things. In order to attain those things which Baptism represents we must exercise the resonance of faith and the Baptism of the heart as Yeshua says,

John 7:38 The one who believes in Me, as the Scripture said, From his innermost being will flow rivers of living water.
