

The Traditionalist Case Against Donald Trump and the American Experiment

By Drake Shelton, the Southern Israelite

11/18/2020

Modern men in America seriously believe that Donald Trump cares about them and cares about conservative values and restoring them in the face of relentless persecution from the Communist left. Yet they absolutely refuse to face the fact that leading democrats, the Clintons, Biden etc. have always been supporters of democratic Capitalism. Biden has just recently shunned Bernie Sanders and Elizabeth Warren and has been a historic proponent of the deficit myth. I have shown in fetal position inducing detail that Capitalism and the industrial revolution was the first iteration of the New World Order, that it funded and created the modern Communist movements and is the over-riding force behind modern moral degeneracy and liberalism in my documentaries and essays:

FREEDOM FAILED! Libertarian Capitalism, the First Iteration of the New World Order

The Black Pill Manifesto

The New World Order is Capitalist Not Communist

Given these facts the informed reader would know that no President or Politician could do anything about the problems here. Donald Trump was obviously a false plastic god who was put before the conservative men in this country to pacify them and to make them believe that he would set things right here when in fact he had no intention of the sort. He talks a good game but when you see his actions, his record of failure and legislative compromise you see the malicious intent of his presidency and his ability to pacify the men of this country from taking the radical steps needed to secure a future for the next generations.

I. Under President Donald Trump the greatest acts of censorship in world history took place and the continued power of liberal technocracy and violations of the right to privacy and free speech proliferated during his administration.

II. Trump promised that he would drain the swamp and throw the Clintons in prison(link). He exposed Bill Clinton's sex past. (link)1:00 Yet, he did not drain the swamp. Hilary and Bill Clinton were never arrested but even congratulated by Donald Trump who said he had great respect for the Clintons at his Inaugural Luncheon speech. (link)

III. Trump's connection to pedo-island and Jeffrey Epstein, which the Clintons were highly involved in, is undeniable and Trump is seen numerous times partying with Jeffrey Epstein, the lived closely to one another in Pam beach and Trump regularly complimented him in their friendship.

"I knew him like everybody else in Palm Beach knew him," Trump told reporters yesterday. "He was a fixture in Palm Beach. I had a falling out with him. ... I was not a fan of his."

He deflected questions about Acosta.

The press has dug up a 2002 interview in which Trump told New York Magazine that Epstein was "a terrific guy. It is even said that he likes beautiful women as much as I do, and many of them are on the younger side."

That's embarrassing in light of what happened later. But there's absolutely no evidence that Trump knew Epstein was a pedophile. It's an easy insinuation, given Trump's history of womanizing and allegations of sexual harassment and assault, which he's denied, but an unfair one.

IV. Massive violence and anarchy by ANTIFA and BLM in American cities proliferated under the Trump administration and their organizations only grew in power and influence. The Trump administration even made sure that the rioters were equipped with piles of bricks during their rampages.

V. Trump's bloodthirsty malice is seen in his Operation Warp Speed which predicts a forced, unproven vaccine, by military forces among the American populace.

VI. Trump's malice is also seen in his attack on gun rights and his attack on due process rights:

Five Years of Political Mastery(29:30)

VII. Trump promised the end of Obamacare (link) and it was not repealed.

VIII. Trump did not follow through on the right wing fantasy of shutting down the borders to preserve a white majority. Quite the opposite.

"The story of how millions of immigrants since the 1970s have put down lasting roots across the country is by now well-known. What is less understood about President Trump's four-year-long push to shut the borders and put "America First" is that his quest may prove ultimately a futile one. Even with one of the most severe declines in immigration since the 1920s, the country is on an irreversible course to becoming ever more diverse, and more dependent on immigrants and their children."

"Unlike his previous proposals, this one would not reduce the total number of immigrants allowed in. This might feel like a minor victory, but it drastically undercuts the far-right fantasy of shutting America's borders. No wonder reactionaries like Ann Coulter see this as a sellout. White nationalists in particular see high-skilled immigrants as the greatest threat. What could be scarier to a white supremacist than thousands of immigrants who are better educated and more employable than he is?"

IX. Trump did not build the wall:

Fact check: Trump administration has built more border wall than meme claims

X. Moreover, contrary to Trump being a staunch American civic nationalist Trump has massive investments in Dubai and is well known to be compromised with the Muslims in the UAE.

<https://www.americanprogress.org/issues/security/news/2017/06/14/433966/trumps-conflicts-interest-united-arab-emirates/>

This further draws suspicion to the sincerity of his Muslim ban. This was clearly a dog whistle to the far right that he has been courting for his dreyfus affair.

Conclusion

At this point the evidence against Trump is overwhelming and undeniable. Immediately, the Trump supporter will gasp in desperation, "It's not Trump's fault. He tried to do the right thing but the system is too corrupt now!" That is nothing but an admission to my position by another name. Yes, the system is too corrupt to reform and so we first must identify what the system is. What institutions and traditions dominated America during it's downfall? The answer is undeniable: The Catholic Church, the Baptist Church and Industrial Capitalism. These institutions live in a symbiotic relationship to further the Insect Model. (The Black Pill Manifesto)

If it is admitted that we must break the system we are living in, in order to secure the future for the next generations, the solution is very clear. We must:

1. Destroy Industrial Technology or leave it.
2. Arrest the leaders and public propagators of the Catholic and Baptist Churches as well as the leaders and propagators of Industrial Capitalism and Social Darwinism, viz. the CIA, the Rand Corporation, the Rockefellers, Wall Street, the Federal Reserve, the Medical industry etc. and try them for high crimes against humanity.
